Your tips support our mission and our mission supports you.

As the nation's first, most versatile federal law enforcement agency, the United States Marshals Service (USMS) is a force of approximately 5,200 deputies and civil servants who protect the judicial process, the cornerstone of American democracy.

This protection is realized in each courthouse search, prisoner transport, and fugitive apprehension on a federal warrant across the 94 federal judicial districts.

The agency's 228 years of experience navigating these considerations in order to protect the federal judicial process has earned the USMS the distinction of serving as the nexus for law enforcement at all levels within a judicial district.

Keeping our communities safe and protecting the judicial process isn't only up to law enforcement—the USMS relies on you to provide us with tips on wanted fugitives, non-compliant sex offenders and threats against the judiciary.

That's why USMS has launched USMS Tips, a web and mobile application that can be used to safely and discreetly report information on wanted fugitives, non-compliant sex offenders and threats affecting the judiciary.

Frequently Asked Questions

What type of information should I report?

You should report wanted fugitives, non-compliant sex offenders, and threats against the federal judiciary. A wanted fugitive is any person that has an active federal, state, or local felony warrant issued for their arrest. A non-compliant sex offender is any person that fails to register and comply as required by law within the state that they reside. A threat against the federal judiciary includes any threat against a federal judge, federal judicial employee, or a federal court facility.

How do I submit a tip using USMS Tips?

To submit a tip, you can download the USMS Tips application on your smart device, as shown on the back of this brochure. You can also visit www.usmarshals.gov to submit a web-based tip.

What happens when I submit a tip using USMS Tips?

When you submit a tip using USMS Tips, you will receive a unique tip number and be able to communicate directly with a USMS representative. Your identity will remain anonymous unless you provide it to USMS.

How do I report additional information?

You can provide additional information to supplement your original tip by logging onto USMS Tips using your tip number. If you lose your tip number, just submit a new tip.

Can I still call or go directly to my local USMS field office to report a tip?

Yes. To obtain USMS contact information, go to www.usmarshals.gov.
