- A. Each newly hired employee shall be considered a probationary employee of the Company or of the predecessor company during his/her first ninety (90) days of employment, to be engaged for a probationary period, during which he/she may be discharged without regard to cause and without recourse to the grievance procedures of this Agreement.

After the probationary period, the new employee shall be considered a regular employee and shall accrue seniority from the date of his/her hire.

- B. The Employer shall notify the Union on request of all new employees hired and of all employees terminated, setting forth their address and job classification and department.

ARTICLE #8

SENIORITY

- A. Seniority for all purposes shall mean the total length of time the employee has been employed by the Company and by predecessor companies in the District of Local #168, State of Pennsylvania, under the United States Marshals, Federal Court Security Officers Program. There will be separate seniority lists for full-time and part-time employees.
- B. Part-time employees will have seniority only among the part-time employees. Any part-time employee who becomes a full-time employee will be placed on the seniority list for full-time employees in accordance with the date they became a full-time employee if they have completed the equivalent of the ninety (90) day probationary period.

- C. Full-time employees, after completing the probationary period, who are thereafter placed on part-time work with the Company, will retain their full-time seniority; however, they shall not accumulate additional full-time seniority while working as a part-time employee. If they later return to full-time employment, they will return to a position on the seniority list to which their full-time seniority entitles them.
- D. In the event of a lay-off or recall from lay-off, seniority shall control, provided the senior employee is capable of performing the available work. The employee with the least seniority shall be laid off first and recall will be in the inverse order of lay-off. It is understood that probationary employees shall be laid off before employees with seniority.
- E. It is the responsibility of the laid off employee to keep the Company advised by certified mail of any changes in his/her mailing address. The employee shall reply to the Company his/her intent to return to work within seventy-two hours after receipt of certified notice from the Company of recall. The employee will then have a maximum of five (5) calendar days to report for duty.
- F. An employee who is unable to report to work because of a non-occupational injury or illness shall retain his/her seniority and position for one (1) year, except that they shall be subject to lay-off according to their seniority. Employees who are unable to report to work because of an occupational injury or illness shall retain their seniority during the term of their disability, except they shall be subject to lay-off according to their seniority.

 - 3. Employee has failed to express his or her intent to return to work, and/or does not return to work in accordance with the requirements in this article;

- I. The Company shall prepare an up-to-date seniority list, which shall be posted on the furnished bulletin boards, and the Company shall furnish to the Union a duplicate copy of such seniority list, advising monthly of any additions or deletions thereto.
- J. It is understood senior employees in each classification shall have preference of assignments to shifts and shift's regular days off, days off, shift hours, work locations, temporary or permanent assignment, rehire after layoff, overtime and holiday work assignment. When the Company determines that a job assignment has an opening, the Company will fill the opening in the following manner:
 - 1. Post a notice of the opening to all full-time and part-time employees in the same classification, which includes shift, hours, days off and any other pertinent information. The notice will be posted for two (2) working days during which employees may notify the Company in writing of their interest in that position. Employees may also express their desire to be considered for the next available opening, in writing, prior to the existence of a vacancy and the request will be valid for ninety (90) days. At the completion of the two (2) day period, the Company will award the position to senior full-time employee that requested the opening. If no full-time employee requested the position, it will be awarded to the most senior part-time employee. The Union and the Employer agree that the seven day posting requirement can be waived if it is confirmed in writing that in seniority order, all bargaining unit members have been offered the available position. If no full-time or part-time employee is awarded the position, the Company may then fill the opening as follows:
 - a) Post a notice of the opening using the posting procedure outlined above to all full-time and part-time members of the bargaining unit working in a different classification, but meets all the qualifications for the opening. The notice and procedure for filling this job will be exactly as that described in the previous paragraph.
 - 2. Should the filling of a vacancy under this article create subsequent openings, all will be filled in exactly the same manner as previously outlined. If no qualified bidders appear on the opening, then the Company may fill the job as follows:
 - a) Fill the job from outside bargaining unit.
 - 3. Lead CSO positions will be posted the same as above and the employee will be selected at the sole discretion of the employer. If all qualifications are equal the job will be filled with the most senior employee.

ARTICLE #10

However, only grievances concerning the interpretation or application of specific provisions of this Agreement shall be subject to arbitration hereunder.
- B. The number of days outlined herein below in the processing and presentation of grievances shall establish the maximum time allowed for the presentation and processing of a grievance.
- C. All grievances shall be presented and processed in accordance with the following procedures:

Grievances which have been processed in accordance with the requirements and remain unsettled shall be processed in accordance with the following procedures and limitations:

1. Selection of an Arbitrator - Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Union's written notice to proceed with arbitration, the Company and the Union may meet telephonically to jointly attempt to agree upon a settlement of the grievance. If both parties agree that no settlement can be reached, they will proceed with the following step; if, within fifteen (15) days, the parties fail to agree upon a settlement, the Union will request the American Arbitration Association (AAA) to supply a list of arbitrators. An arbitrator will be selected from the list supplied by the AAA by parties alternately striking from the list until one (1) name remains, and this individual shall be the arbitrator to hear the grievance.
2. Decision of the Arbitrator - The arbitrator shall commence the hearing at the earliest possible date. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties to the Agreement. Any decision shall be complied with, without undue delay after the decision is rendered. It is understood and agreed between the parties that the arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement. If the decision of the Arbitrator is not complied with within fifteen (15) days of the decision the losing side shall contact the other party with an explanation of why they need more time to comply and the parties may agree to extend the time for compliance, however if it is necessary to enforce compliance through the courts, the non-compliant party will be liable for attorney and court costs. Any award of reinstatement (including back pay) shall be subject to the Government permitting the Employee to return to work. Should the Government refuse to allow the Employee to return to work, any award of reinstatement shall be of no force and effect, and shall not be binding on the Employer. Except that back pay (only) will be paid in cases that the Employer initiated the action and provided incorrect information, which resulted in the cause of the action against the Employee.

3. Arbitration Expense - The arbitrator's fees and expenses, including the cost of any hearing room, shall be shared equally between the Company and the Union. Each party to the arbitration will be responsible for its own expenses and compensation incurred bringing any of its witnesses or other participants to the arbitration. Any other expenses, including transcript costs, shall be borne by the party incurring such expenses.
4. Time Limits - The decision of the arbitrator shall be rendered as soon as possible after the dispute has been submitted to him/her.
7. Time limits set forth herein may be extended only by mutual agreement of the Union and the Company.
8. The Union shall have the right to file a group grievance (class action) or grievances involving more than one (1) Employee at the Informal Step of the grievance procedure.
9. No individual may move a grievance to arbitration.

Hours paid that are not worked for vacation days, do count as hours worked for overtime purposes. Acts of God, orders of the Court or US Marshals Service, or the failure of equipment beyond the Company's control shall nullify the Company's requirement to pay such reporting time pay.
- C. In the event of an undisputed Company caused error of less than $100.00 as to an employee's rate of pay, proper adjustment will be made in the next paycheck after the error has been brought in written form to the Company's attention. D. Upon termination of employment, Employee will be paid at an individual hourly rate for any unused, earned Personal/Sick Leave, based upon the number of actual hours Employee worked during that contract year. (Example: An Employee who terminates work after 4 months at the full-time rate during the current contract year and earns three (3) days Personal/Sick Leave, but only uses two (2) days, would be eligible upon termination to be paid for the third, unused Personal/Sick day.) if the Employee has used more Personal/Sick days upon termination than she/he earned based upon time worked on the contract (6 hours per full month worked) the amount of the overage will be deducted from the Employee's final paycheck. (Example: If Employee works only six months and therefore earns 36 hours Personal/Sick Leave, but actually uses 48 hours Personal Leave, the extra 12 hours pay will be deducted from employee's final paycheck.)

E. Personal Leave will be granted as long as the employee receives written approval by the Employer. Requests will usually not be made more than thirty (30) days in advance.

Once a leave is approved, a more senior employee requesting the same time cannot change the time that was previously granted to another employee.

F. All Personal Leave will be front-loaded each year and from the date of hire. Any leave that is used and not earned shall be repaid to the Company upon the employee's termination of employment.
