The U.S. Marshal's Fugitive Task Force has been assigned to locate and arrest fugitive, Adam Ellard. Ellard is being sought on an outstanding federal arrest warrant issued by the U.S. District Court in Boston, Mass. for Violations of Conditions of Supervised Release. Ellard is on supervised release as a result of a conviction and ten year sentence for a 2004 case for Cocaine Sales. Ellard was last known to be staying in motels/hotels in the Southern Maine area, but has possibly now moved into the Southern N.H. or Northern Massachusetts area. Ellard has a history of drug sales and is possibly still involved in these activities to finance his time as a fugitive. Ellard should be considered to be Armed and Dangerous, due to his extensive criminal history involving drugs, weapons and violence.

If you have any information regarding the whereabouts or have observed a person that resembles Ellard, please contact the U.S. Marshals Fugitive Task Force, or your local police.
