

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

June 22, 2017

Contact: Supervisory Deputy U.S. Marshal
Jeffrey White District of New Hampshire,
(603) 387-6308 (cell)

MARSHALS TASK FORCE HUNTING ESCAPED FUGITIVE

CONCORD, N.H. – The United States Marshal's – N.H. Joint Fugitive Task Force has been requested to assist in the location of escaped Belknap County prisoner, Tamara Ipock. During the afternoon of June, 22, 2017, Ipock was being transported to the Belknap County Jail, when she was able to free herself from one of her handcuffs, and flee from the transport vehicle. The escape happened in the area of Union Avenue and Court Streets in Laconia at approximately 3:30PM.

Ipock was last seen wearing an orange, Merrimack County Corrections prisoner uniform. Ipock is described as 5'02", 120 pounds, blue eyes, and brown hair. Ipock has several identifiable tattoos, including; on her right ankle – four leaf clover; left ankle – flower & moon; right upper arm – butterfly; & neck – zodiac symbol.

Ipock is currently wanted for the escape, as well as two outstanding Belknap County warrants for failure to appear on narcotic charges. Ipock has family, friends and associates throughout Belknap and Merrimack Counties in NH and her current whereabouts are unknown. As always, we encourage fugitives to do the right thing and surrender; and also remind family, friends and associates that it is a crime to assist Ipock in her flight from justice and could result in criminal charges.

If you have any information regarding the whereabouts of Tamara Ipock, please contact Special Deputy U.S. Marshal, Stephen Colcord. Deputy Colcord can be reached at 603-225-1632; or anonymously by clicking on this link: WEB-TIP, or anonymously TEXT the word NHTIP followed by any information to the phone number TIP411. If this is an urgent call, please dial your local police or -911-.

Since the inception of the New Hampshire Joint Fugitive Task Force in 2002, these partnerships have resulted in over 6,806 arrests (Updated as of 5/25/2017). These arrests have ranged in seriousness from murder, assault, unregistered sex offenders, probation and parole violations and numerous other serious offenses. Nationally the United States Marshals Service fugitive programs are carried out with local law enforcement in 94 district offices, 85 local fugitive task forces, 7 regional task forces, as well as a growing network of offices in foreign countries.

Additional information about the U.S. Marshals Service can be found at <http://www.usmarshals.gov>.

####

America's Oldest Federal Law Enforcement Agency